annoying and making last minute changes.

What are you wearing?

Some Gap ¾ trousers and an off the shoulder black t-shirt. My hair needed some intense conditioning so I have my favourite Ojon hair masque in. When I wash it out I'll be wearing a forever unique maxi dress which is very flattering on my post pregnancy figure.

What's your make up bag essential?

Black Turbo Lash mascara by Estee Lauder, if I ever decide to try another mascara, I always end up coming back to this one.

How do you pamper yourself?

I have an infrared sauna which I like to use a few times a week. I go in with my nook, put on some classical music and loose myself for about 30 minutes. I also love going to my best friend's beauty salon, Transition in Ammanford and getting my nails done.

Favourite high street store?

TK Maxx is amazing, when I was in labour my partner Ryan promised me a Lulu Guinness clutch, TK Maxx had some on their website for much less than the RRP so he got me 2. It's also a great place to discover different brands.

Last thing you bought?

A gorgeous, pink sleigh cot bed for my 15 with Shaun Leane, my engagement ring is from his entwined collection and I had it especially made in rose gold, I'm so in love with everything he makes, I definitely want to expand my collection.

Biggest fashion faux pas?

Everything I wore in my teenage years. Everyone wore jeans and baggy jumpers which I hated because I wanted to wear pretty, girly clothes. It wasn't until I was about 17 that I felt I could be a bit more unique and wear what I liked rather than what everyone else is wearing.

Favourite hair salon?

I always go to a local hair salon called Blown Away, they're fab there and always do my hair exactly how I want it.
